

2022 ANNUAL REPORT

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S STATEMENT

This year has been truly momentous! 2022 was not without its challenges, but our ability to hold fast to our mission has proven stronger than any obstacle. I am so proud of our team, including our staff, volunteers, board members, and supporters for the strength they lend to Harmony Hope Stables. We are seeing great outcomes in the children we serve, and that is a direct reflection of our excellent teamwork!

Our human team is not the only star of our show! Our animals have profoundly changed lives through therapy sessions, music lessons, and just being there for a cuddle. The addition of The Serenity Circle in 2022 has added another beautiful space for harmony, hope, and healing to manifest. Our newly-added retreats and goat cuddling/nature walk sessions are helping to serve our community in a broader sense and raise awareness of the considerable therapeutic value of animals and music.

Welcome to the ranch! Harmony Hope Stables is a place where children with significant challenges are learning to play instruments, parents enjoy their time in nature as their child participates in equine therapy services, teens are forming deep connections with mentors, everyone enjoys live music around our campfire, and we even have new songwriters in our midst!

We have grown into a therapeutic mindfulness experience for everyone. Between the music and the animals, our ranch has become a healing space for all to enjoy. As a whole, we have developed the ideal peaceful and therapeutic atmosphere, perfect for the mission of Harmony Hope Stables. I am so incredibly grateful for the past year and excited to see what 2023 brings!

With hope always,

KRISTI HUDDLESTON

Founder/Executive Director

From the Heart...Our Parents Tell the Story

As a parent of a child with a disability, we sometimes feel hopeless, helpless, and at a loss for words; therefore, we must remain grounded in our faith, hold on to hope, and love unconditionally. It's also important for us to find creative ways to help our children grow, learn, and develop—finding Harmony Hope Stables has been such a blessing to my family and an answer to my prayers.

My son Cayden is nine years old and was diagnosed with sensory processing disorder at age four. Two years ago, he began Equine Therapy at HHS, and that's when horses started changing his life. Cayden has always had profound love and interest in animals, but he struggled with being calm, quiet, and gentle around them. When Cayden first started at HHS he was in individual equine assisted learning classes where he was taught how to care for horses and ride a horse. It was through his hard work and relationship building with the horses that he learned empathy, mindfulness, confidence, and self esteem on the ranch, at home, and in the classroom. In addition, he learned techniques on how to manage his anxiety and emotions better. During Cayden's first year at HHS, he also participated in group music therapy, which allowed him to express himself through music while having fun and interacting with his peers.

This year, HHS staff recommended that Cayden participate in group equine assisted learning to further develop and help improve his social skills, such as making friends, waiting his turn, showing empathy, practicing patience, and minding his manners. At first, we were both a little nervous about starting this type of equine therapy with Cayden because he struggles with managing his emotions and behavior; however, we were hopeful that this would be of great benefit to him. As it turns out, this is exactly what Cayden needed to improve. He has changed the way he interacts with his peers, our family, and especially his brother. He has learned patience, ways to manage his emotions, and the art of waiting his turn. Working with the horses, his peers, and the HHS team brings a sense of peace and tranquility over Cayden and for that our family is forever grateful.

Thank you, Kristi and the HHS Team for making a difference in our lives and the community!

Rochelle Popp-Finch, Mother of Cayden

Harmony, Hope, and Healing

We want to thank Kristi, Heather and all the volunteers and staff at Harmony Hope Stables.

We started the year in tears needing help with our daughter. The love, care and training she has received this year has brought visible changes to her behavior and mind. She will sing songs that she has learned at Harmony Hope Stables to regulate herself and she has even sung them for her friends when they were upset!

The animals bring so much joy and peace to our daughter and the grooming gives her a sense of responsibility and confidence. There are not words to thank you for all your time and love and hard work. Thank you from the bottom of our hearts.
